"In conclusion"(1)

- The SSH programme offers a wide spectrum of challenging and stimulating research areas: 38 topics for the 1st call for proposals (two years).
- An integrated approach is necessary for most of the topics, even if each area has often its own "driving force(s)". Both quantitative and qualitative analyses will be necessary (when relevant).
- The research areas are generally related to issues on the top of the EU political agenda: a good reason to be well informed of EU policies and to ensure a good dissemination plan of the results for their future use.

"In conclusion"(2)

- For many subjects, the EU research does not “start from scratch”. It is recommended to be aware of the outcome of the previous programmes and the nature of the ongoing projects (6th FP and elsewhere).
- Global issues call for cooperation at the global level; true opportunities to involve third countries exist in many topics (12 topics with an explicit request).
- Equal opportunities exist for all the European countries participating to the 7th FP. New areas should help to increase diversity in the research workforce. A balanced representation of women and men in the projects is encouraged.
